Chapter 3 by Joakim

So that is what I did. I went up the stairs to the huge book with all the stories and asked the story about me and how it started.

The book flipped open and showed me a story that started with:

"Once upon a time there was a little boy...

Chapter 6 by Voixage

It was a finger. Or at least, he thought it was a finger. The dark sky seemed suddenly to be just a haze beyond which something pale and pink was moving, something enormous, something with...a fingernail.

Chapter 7 by Sharan

He suddenly realized that he had made the biggest mistake of his life, until then of course. He knew that now, as he could guess that anything he does from that point on will be nothing but another mistake.

He cursed his misfortune as he gathered his courage to deal with the new challenge presented before him...

HE HAD BEEN SHRUNK!!!!

Chapter 8 by Brock Thompson

The panic hit him like a tidal wave as he sprinted to escape the finger as it descended.

The fingernail clipped Jay's head as he ran, knocking him unconscious. His body collapsed as everything in his vision faded to black.

When Jay finally came to, he was trapped in a jar. A giant child's face was hovering in front of him.

"Hi. I'm Emily. You're going to be my bestest friend," The baby-like monster said. "We're going to play for ever and ever."
